The Judicial Appointments

It can be stated, on next to very highest authority, that the chances of Robbins B. Anderson for appointment to succeed Justice Wilder in the Supreme Court are good.

No immediate probability for the second Federal judgeship is locally known. This office seems to be much in the air.

Hon. W. O. Smith, when asked if he were a candidate for the Federal bench, replied:

"There is absolutely no foundation for such a rumor. I am not and never have been a candidate, never heard my name suggested for the place and would not take it if it were offered."

Governor Frear, while declining to disclose his knowledge of the judicial situation generally, did go so far as to say that he knew nothing about the report that Judge Robinson would not be reappointed.

"I really have given no consideration to the matter as yet," the Governor said. "Judge Robinson's commission will not expire until March 6."

POOR CHANCE TO SAVE WRECKED BARK AT KAHULUI

SEAS BREAKING OVER THE STRANDED ALEXANDER BLACK AND RUDDER CARRIED AWAY—IS IN DANGEROUS SPOT BUT MAY BE SAVED IF THE NORTHERLY WINDS HOLD OFF.

The British bark Alexander Black by her all day yesterday. Captain Bennett stated that the distressed vessel went ashore about 4 p. m. on Tuesday afternoon, after arriving from Nitrate Ports, is, according to latest reports, in danger of becoming a total loss. She is ashore in a bad spot and the weather is so rough that it is impossible for any salving craft to get near enough to get a line on her.

The spot where she struck is nearly abreast of Pala Mill, and about half a mile on the Kahului side. The bark Colusa went on the reef at the identical spot about ten years ago but was afterwards pulled off.

The Alexander Black is resting on her port side on coral and sand. Starboard at a little distance is deep water. The seas are breaking over her, her rudder has gone by the board and the after hatch has been carried away, allowing the salt water free access to her cargo of fertilizer.

The steamer Claudine arrived this morning from Kahului, having stood

MORE FILIPINOS ARRIVE TO-DAY

Three hundred and sixty-one of William H. Taft's little brown brothers from Filipinoland, arrived on the S. S. Siberia from Yokohama today. They were clad in khaki and their appearance was what the society writer would term "patty." They were described by an officer of the steamship as a well-behaved, musical crowd.

The Siberia made the run from Yokohama in nearly ten days, meeting with head winds and currents. She brought 620 tons of freight for here and will leave for San Francisco at 10 a. m. tomorrow. In the steerage with the Filipinos for this port were 59 Japs, 10 Indians and 10 Chinese.
